

Claudia Nygaard Introduction:

Chicago DJ Rich Warren has compared her voice to “amber honey”, and “Sing Out” magazine, the revered authority on acoustic music, has compared her songs to those of folk music icons Guy Clark and Ian Tyson.

She is a former Nashville Music Row staff songwriter that has won numerous awards for her writing, including the prestigious Kerrville, Texas Folk Festival Songwriting Competition.

All twelve songs on her latest CD “Let The Storm Roll In” have received airplay, and the recording charted at #1 on the Cashbox Roots Music Country Chart, and #8 on the Folk DJ music chart. It also received five stars from Maverick Magazine.

Tonight we are delighted to have her share those songs with us!
Please make welcome, Claudia Nye-Guard.
